

Mrs. Hunt Held In Tombs on Check Charge

Sister-in-Law of Former Cincinnati Mayor, Now Parted From Husband, Fails to Give $10,000 Bail

Relatives Not Informed

Brokers Reimbursed for Nearly All of Bonds and Won't Prosecute Charge

Mrs. Harriet Pendleton Hunt, thirty-five years old, former wife of Philip Hunt, Thomas H. Hunt, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who also says she is the daughter of Elliott Hunt Pendleton, a prominent Cincinnati attorney, spent yesterday and last night in the Tombs, after being arraigned before Magistrate George W. Simpson in Tombs Court yesterday morning on a charge of suspicion of grand larceny.

Mrs. Hunt is alleged to have issued a check for $10,000 to the W. E. Hutton & Co. brokerage firm in return for $10,000 worth of Victory bonds. The check is alleged to have been returned worthless by the Cincinnati bank upon which it was drawn.

An element of mystery entered the case yesterday when John Minton, of 25 Liberty Street, charged Mrs. Hunt's defense. Mr. Minton yesterday afternoon refused to say who had retained him as counsel for the accused woman and refused to say whether the appearance of a representative from Justice Pendleton's office at Police Headquarters during the questioning of the prisoner yesterday morning had anything to do with his interest.

Said She Was Senator's Daughter

When questioned the woman said to have told Detectives Mayer and Brown, who arrested her Sunday afternoon in a room at Hotel Langwell, in West Forty-fourth Street, that she was the daughter of Senator Charles Pendleton. She said her home was at 1736 Madison Avenue, Cincinnati, and that her father conducted a law office at 519 Main Street, in that city.

Parted From Husband

She is also said to have told the detectives that she was the former wife of Philip Hunt, the brother of former Mayor Henry Thomas Hunt, of Cincinnati. She declared that she and her husband were not living together, having been divorced a few years ago. This latter statement was verified last night when dispatches from Cincinnati acquainted the police here with a brief story of her married life with Mr. Hunt.

According to Mr. Minton, Mrs. Hunt, who styles herself a writer, makes no denial of having issued a check for the $10,000 worth of Victory bonds. At the time of issuing the check, Mr. Minton, according to her attorney, wired her father in Cincinnati telling him of the purchase and requesting that he deposit $10,000 in the check, in the Hamilton County Bank, upon which the check was drawn. Failure of the father to make the deposit, Mr. Minton says, resulted in the check being returned marked "not sufficient funds." It was ascertained yesterday that Mrs. Hunt had but $3 in her credit in the Hamilton County Bank.

Intended Going Abroad

Mrs. Hunt, according to her attorney, intended to go to Europe within a few days. She was unable to explain why the woman, upon being arrested, claimed to be the niece of Justice Francis Key Pendleton. He said further, that as far as he knew, the woman, as she was not the niece of Justice Pendleton, but was a distant relative. Justice Pendleton also denied that she was his niece.

When arraigned before Magistrate Simpson a motion was filed by Mr. Minton, that as far as he knew, the woman, as she was not the niece of Justice Pendleton, but was a distant relative. Justice Pendleton also denied that she was his niece.

The Motion was Denied, however, and bail was fixed at $2,000 by the court.

After it had been ascertained that Mrs. Hunt had but $3 in the bank Deputy District Attorney Sabatino filed a motion that the court increase the bail to $10,000, so that the amount involved might be covered. A later order increasing the bail to $10,000 was made, and Mrs. Hunt, being unable to give this sum, was taken by a man from the courtroom to the Tombs.

Father on Way to City

Late yesterday afternoon Mr. Minton said that he had communicated with the father of the woman and that he had arrived in New York City this morning. He said that the woman, upon arriving some time this morning, Nine of the bonds purchased with the alleged worthless check, together with approximately $10,000 in cash, were in her possession at the time of her arrest, were yesterday returned to the W. E. Hutton concern, according to Mr. Minton. Mr. Minton said further that the entire amount would not be returned to her, but that there was more than likely to be made good by the father upon his arrival and that he was as sure that the father would not refuse to prosecute the case, which has been set for a hearing on April 18.

Dispatches from Cincinnati late last night, however, denied that the woman's father was on his way to New York here on the charge of suspicion of grand larceny. According to press dispatches, relatives in Cincinnati disclaimed all knowledge of having been informed of her incarceration.

National Anthem Played As Substitute for Mass

KENOSHA, Wis., April 11.—With the Holy Rosary Catholic Church surrounded by a large crowd this morning and guarded by the entire Kenosha police department, the Rev. Peter K. Jones, upon arrival of the police, did not appear to say mass. The priest's home was entered last night by a crowd of several hundred persons in a demonstration for his removal.

In lieu of a service, a band, stationed near the church, which is in the quarter known as "Little Italy," played over and over "The Star-Spangled Banner." The crowd at the church dispersed when it was announced the service had been dispensed with.

"I shall stay in Kenosha and in charge of my parish until I am ordered to leave by the archbishop," said Father Perardi.

Demand Pelham Park Land

Park Commissioner Joseph P. Hennessy of the Bronx yesterday announced that he is taking steps to ascertain from the Navy Department the definite date on which it will return to the city the Pelham Bay Park, which was turned over to the navy authorities shortly after war was declared, through three permits issued by the city. Many efforts have been made to secure the return of the land, but they have been fruitless. In addition the land is littered with lumber and other material, which, although owned by a few wrecking contractors, has not been removed by them.

Five Fivers Look Alike, But A Drink Is a Drink to Simon

So, When Nathan Found a Cellarette in Place of His Chicken Sandwiches, He Decided It Was Good Business to Trade Cars and Cargo

When Mrs. Nathan Simon, of 2934 Creston Avenue, the Bronx, reached under the seat of the buff upholstered sedan driver in which she and Mr. Simon were en route to Boston yesterday via the Post Road, she couldn't find the box of chicken sandwiches with which they had planned to regale themselves, but did find a thermos bottle containing some sort of liquid which Mr. Simon sampled and declared to compensate amply for the missing sandwiches.

What had become of the sandwiches Mr. Simon was unable to understand until Mrs. Simon, sharp-eyed and quick-witted, noticed a stain on the floor carpet. There hadn't been any stain on the floor carpet of the Simon car overnight. With a rapidly roving eye Mrs. Simon took in the details of the car's interior. Then she knew.

"Nate," said Mrs. Simon, "this isn't our car." With horrified reflections on the activity of the police auto squad and Mr. Whitman's spur, Simon sized up the conveyance inside and out.

"Ma," he gasped, "when we came out of the drug store in Getty Square we got in the wrong car and drove off. The guy that owns this car has got our sandwiches and we've got the guy's cellarette. When we get to Boston we'll be pinched and brought back in chains."

Mrs. Simon had been pursuing her investigations. Under a little flap was a card under a mica cover. It read: "John W. Litzinger, Little Neck, Long Island. Telephone Bayside 6661."

With the spirit of compromise urging him to a Lloyd Georgian coup that should set him right with a suspicious world, and especially with the owner of the fiver and that flavorsome fluid in the thermos bottle, Mr. Simon speeded to the nearest telephone and called up Little Neck. Given the connection he informed an amused Mr. Litzinger that his fiver was half way to Boston with an embarrassed cargo.

"Say," he demanded, "how does that perambulator run for you? Having any trouble?" "Nary trouble," retorted the relieved Simon, "runs like a bird. Always having trouble with the motor, though."

"Well," laughed Litzinger, "I've got your car. She runs like a sewing machine for me. How'd you trade?" For one instant only did Simon hesitate. Then he answered: "Even if you'll throw in the thermos bottle."

"You're on," said Mr. Litzinger, and hung up. "Ma," grinned Mr. Simon, as he emerged from the telephone booth, "there's more than one way of keeping out of jail."

They were marked for identification. The identity of the writer of the missives and their contents were not revealed.

U. S. Agent a Stokes Detective

It was through Harry J. Jentzer, an agent of the Department of Justice, who acted as a detective for Mr. Stokes while on leave of absence, that it became known that Mr. Stokes and Mrs. Inch had met.

Mr. Littleton in cross-examining Mr. Jentzer asked him whether he knew Mrs. Inch. The witness said he did. "Where did you see her?" asked the lawyer.

"At Reisenweber's," was the reply. "Did you talk to her about the Stokes case?" "No."

"Was Mr. Stokes with you when you met Betty Inch at Reisenweber's?" "Not the first time, but the second."

The name of Jack de Saulles, famous Yale football player, who was killed by his wife three years ago, also was brought into the case yesterday. Jentzer had testified on direct examination about finding two keys in a desk at the Stokes residence. One of these, he said, he had fitted in the door of an apartment formerly occupied by Edgar T. Wallace, a San Francisco oil and mining man, who is one of the co-respondents named by Mr. Stokes. It is charged that Mrs. Stokes was a frequent caller at the Wallace apartment.

Henry A. Wise, appearing for Mr. Wallace in the case, asked the witness what he had tried the key in the apartment formerly occupied by Mr. de Saulles at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street. Jentzer said he had done so.

Asked how he established the date when he tried to fit the key, the detective said it was a few days after the order of Joseph B. Elwell. While he was on the stand, Jentzer said the key was asked whether he had tried the key in the door of Mr. Elwell's residence. He answered in the negative. The witness said he had shown the keys to District Attorney Swanwick at the Manhattan Club.

Mr. Wise questioned Mr. Jentzer about the reputation of certain addresses where some of the witnesses for Mr. Stokes had a bad name. The witness said she had a bad name. Lillian Johnson, a negro, was a witness. She said she had done some secret service work for Mr. Stokes in connection with seeking evidence against Mrs. Stokes, and she volunteered the information that she had detected a detective in connection with the trial of Harry K. Thaw.

"Did you work on the Elwell case?" asked Mr. Littleton.

"I wish I had," replied the witness. "I would have found the persons who killed him. They closed the case too quickly."

Questioned Wallace a Mid

Mrs. Johnson said she accompanied Jentzer to Newport, R. I., to question Mrs. Martha Jones, formerly a maid in the apartment of Mr. Wallace. Mrs. Jones has testified that Mrs. Stokes never called at the Wallace apartment. The witness quoted Mrs. Jones as saying: "I'd go to hell and back before I would go back on Mr. Wallace."

Mrs. Johnson testified that she had been employed in the Stokes family for many years, and during the last year Mr. Stokes had made a gift to her of $1,000 to help her buy her present home.

The witness said she saw Mr. Jentzer fit the key into the door of the Wallace apartment.

Weather Report

Sun rises... 5:23 a.m. (Sun sets... 6:32 p.m.) Moon rises... 8:24 a.m. (Moon sets... 11:12 p.m.) Local Forecast.—Fair and warmer to day and tomorrow; moderate west and southwest winds.

Local Official Record.—The following official record shows temperatures during the last twenty-four hours, in comparison with the corresponding hours of last year.

1921. 1920. 3 a. m. .... 35 35 3 p. m. .... 43 44 6 " .... 36 36 9 " .... 42 42 12 " .... 28 30 9 a. m. .... 42 45 12 " .... 39 50 11 a. m. .... 39 56 Highest, 45 degrees (at 3:30 p. m.); low est., 28 (at 8 a. m.); average, 38; average number of days below 32°; average number of days above 80°; average number of days for thirty-three years, 46.

Humidity 5 a. m. .... 55 1 p. m. .... 48 5 p. m. .... 50 Barometer Readings 5 a. m. .... 30.11 1 p. m. .... 30.07 5 p. m. .... 30.10 General Weather Conditions WASHINGTON, April 11.—Pressure was relatively lower to-day off the north Atlantic coast, high over the Eastern and Southern states and low and falling over the plains states and the middle and south Rocky Mountain regions. The lowest pressure over Colorado at night. Heavy weather prevailed during the last twenty-four hours except that in the morning and light frost to the Alabama coast.

Temperatures continued considerably below normal in the Eastern and Southern states, but the weather became much warmer in the upper lake region, the northern Mississippi Valley, the plains states and the south Rocky Mountain region. Freezing temperatures occurred as far south as west of North Carolina in the morning and light frost to the Alabama coast.

Fair weather probably will prevail in the states of the Mississippi Valley Tuesday and Wednesday except that showers are probable Wednesday in the upper lake region. Temperatures will rise east of the Mississippi River except in northern Michigan.

District Forecasts.—Eastern New York, New England, eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.—Fair and warmer to-day and to-morrow.

Betty Inch, of Formerly Ankle, In Stokes Case

U. S. Agent, Doing Detective Work for Plaintiff, Says Employer Met Her at Reisenweber's With Him

Jack de Saulles Brought In

Key Fitting Wallace Room Tried on Door of Football Star Slain by Wife

Mrs. Betty Inch, she of the shapely ankles, around which the court had a screen placed to divert the attention of the jurors while they were hearing the case against her on a charge of attempted extortion, figured yesterday in the trial of the Stokes divorce and separation action in the Supreme Court.

A few days after the hearing of W. E. D. Stokes's divorce suit against Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes and her counter claim for a separation opened Mrs. Inch came into the courthouse and had a talk with Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Mrs. Stokes. Yesterday Mr. Littleton, after bringing out by testimony that Mr. Stokes had met Mrs. Inch, presented a batch of letters said to have been received by Mrs. Inch.

They were marked for identification. The identity of the writer of the missives and their contents were not revealed.

U. S. Agent a Stokes Detective

It was through Harry J. Jentzer, an agent of the Department of Justice, who acted as a detective for Mr. Stokes while on leave of absence, that it became known that Mr. Stokes and Mrs. Inch had met.

Mr. Littleton in cross-examining Mr. Jentzer asked him whether he knew Mrs. Inch. The witness said he did. "Where did you see her?" asked the lawyer.

"At Reisenweber's," was the reply. "Did you talk to her about the Stokes case?" "No."

"Was Mr. Stokes with you when you met Betty Inch at Reisenweber's?" "Not the first time, but the second."

The name of Jack de Saulles, famous Yale football player, who was killed by his wife three years ago, also was brought into the case yesterday. Jentzer had testified on direct examination about finding two keys in a desk at the Stokes residence. One of these, he said, he had fitted in the door of an apartment formerly occupied by Edgar T. Wallace, a San Francisco oil and mining man, who is one of the co-respondents named by Mr. Stokes. It is charged that Mrs. Stokes was a frequent caller at the Wallace apartment.

Henry A. Wise, appearing for Mr. Wallace in the case, asked the witness what he had tried the key in the apartment formerly occupied by Mr. de Saulles at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street. Jentzer said he had done so.

Asked how he established the date when he tried to fit the key, the detective said it was a few days after the order of Joseph B. Elwell. While he was on the stand, Jentzer said the key was asked whether he had tried the key in the door of Mr. Elwell's residence. He answered in the negative. The witness said he had shown the keys to District Attorney Swanwick at the Manhattan Club.

Mr. Wise questioned Mr. Jentzer about the reputation of certain addresses where some of the witnesses for Mr. Stokes had a bad name. The witness said she had a bad name. Lillian Johnson, a negro, was a witness. She said she had done some secret service work for Mr. Stokes in connection with seeking evidence against Mrs. Stokes, and she volunteered the information that she had detected a detective in connection with the trial of Harry K. Thaw.

"Did you work on the Elwell case?" asked Mr. Littleton.

"I wish I had," replied the witness. "I would have found the persons who killed him. They closed the case too quickly."

Questioned Wallace a Mid Mrs. Johnson said she accompanied Jentzer to Newport, R. I., to question Mrs. Martha Jones, formerly a maid in the apartment of Mr. Wallace. Mrs. Jones has testified that Mrs. Stokes never called at the Wallace apartment. The witness quoted Mrs. Jones as saying: "I'd go to hell and back before I would go back on Mr. Wallace."

Mrs. Johnson testified that she had been employed in the Stokes family for many years, and during the last year Mr. Stokes had made a gift to her of $1,000 to help her buy her present home.

The witness said she saw Mr. Jentzer fit the key into the door of the Wallace apartment.

WEEK in NEW YORK

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co. Broadway at Ninth street, New York Telephone Stuyvesant 4700 Store Hours 9 to 9

What a Mother the Silent Night Is

with its new thoughts and new plans and hopes for the morrow, and real regrets for unfinished work of the day gone by, to be taken up tomorrow "for sure."

It is not rest alone the night brings. It is the change of scene and the company of home, its bright lights and good cheer.

It is the laying down of burdens and the enjoyment of a quiet hour when we have our best thoughts while surrounded by those who care most for us.

The strongest man needs the home bread and sleep and the peace under his own roof.

(Signed)

April 12, 1921.

DIAMONDS

temporarily at new prices

"Diamond prices will remain stable; there will be no lowering," said one of the heads of the Diamond syndicate when given a dinner in New York recently.

This makes the present temporary offer of lower prices one wisely to be taken advantage of

---for personal gifts
---for wedding gifts
---for Christmas gifts

Yes, at these attractive prices it will pay to procure a piece of this jewelry for future as well as present use.

Some of the specimens RINGS

	Standard Price	Present Price
Fancy hoop, diamonds, black pearl in center....	$2150	$1300
Fancy diamond, large diamond in center.....	$2600	$1570
Cabochon emerald and diamond cluster.....	$2500	$1500
Fancy emerald and diamond.....	$1625	$975
Oriental sapphire and diamond hoop.....	$2075	$1250
Fancy diamond, Oriental pearl center.....	$1925	$1160
Marquise shape, diamond and calibre sapphire, navette diamond in center.....	$2825	$1700
Octagon shape, diamond and calibre sapphire, emerald cut diamond in center.....	$2825	$1700
Navette diamond studded with diamonds.....	$3600	$2150
Fancy cut diamond, with small diamonds.....	$3400	$2000
Navette shape, surrounded with two rows of small diamonds.....	$4500	$2700
Emerald cut diamond with small diamonds and calibre sapphires.....	$4200	$2500
Marquise shape, with navette shaped diamonds in center.....	$3900	$2350
Fancy diamond, 3 large diamonds in center.....	$1375	$825
Emerald cut diamond in fancy setting.....	$3475	$2100
Fancy ring of diamond and calibre sapphires....	$2575	$1550

BROOCHES

Oval shaped brooch, diamonds and sapphires....	$5575	$2770
Fancy bow knot of sapphires and diamonds....	$1575	$950
Fancy pierced brooch, diamonds and calibre sapphires.....	$1785	$1080
All diamond brooch.....	$1825	$1100

BAR PINS

All diamond bar pin.....	$1775	$1075
Calibre sapphires and diamond bar pin.....	$2725	$1650
All diamond bow knot bar pin.....	$2100	$1275
Calibre sapphire and diamond bar pin.....	$1750	$1050
All diamond bar pin.....	$2820	$1700
Diamond and emerald bar pin.....	$1250	$750
Sapphire and diamond bar pin.....	$1985	$1200

BRACELETS

Flexible bracelet, with two rows of diamonds and one row of sapphires.....	$5625	$3400
Flexible bracelet, with alternating three diamonds and three sapphires.....	$2000	$1200
All diamond bracelet.....	$4500	$2725
Flexible bracelet of diamonds and sapphires in fancy design.....	$3975	$2400

LAVALLIERS

Three diamond cluster drop design.....	$1600	$950
Pear shape effect with fancy cut diamonds....	$4200	$2500
Fancy pendant of diamonds and calibre sapphires.	$9075	$5500

RIBBON WRIST WATCHES

Oval shape; diamond and calibre emeralds....	$1625	$975
Long fancy design of all diamonds.....	$1750	$1050
Fancy design; diamonds and calibre sapphires....	$2500	$1500

Jewelry Store, Main Floor, Old Building, Motor Entrance at 10th St.

First Sale of Angelus Pianos

Player Pianos

—$775 Angelus Pianos—$595.
—$800 Angelus Pianos—$595.
—$850 Angelus Pianos—$625.
—$900 Angelus Pianos—$695.

Each instrument is equipped with the exclusive ANGELUS features—melodiant and phrasing lever. These permit the player to put her or his own interpretation into the playing of the music roll. They are the features that made the ANGELUS famous.

The ANGELUS people recently merged their business with that of a large piano manufacturer. This is their clearaway of stocks on hand, prior to a standardizing of their product—the first time ANGELUS pianos (player-pianos) have been offered under price.

CONVENIENT TERMS.
First Gallery, New Building.

Music Rolls, 50c

1,000; regular prices 80c to $1.35. All ANGELUS rolls; about 750 are classical selections; the rest are popular modern selections.

Rythmodik Music Rolls at half price—2,500, now 35c to $1.25 each; classical selections.
First Gallery, New Building.

Women's French Gloves, $1.35 pr.

French kidskin and lamb-skin glaze; in tan, black, brown and white; all sizes; 2-clasp overseas; originally $1.85, $2 and $2.65 pair.
Main floor, Old Building.

The Golf Studio Closes Friday

Pretty well booked up to closing time; but there are a few half hours open which hold within themselves great possibilities for golfers who may avail of them.

One chap is going to the wood this season for the first time in six years, as a result of one half hour's lesson.

Telephone Stuyvesant 4700 Extension 222 when you get to the office.
Fourth Gallery, New Bldg.

When a woman voluntarily says:

"I've been everywhere, and have seen nowhere any furniture of such good quality at such low prices as in your $400,000 Sale of Bedroom and Dining Room Furniture."—(As one woman said here last week).—

you may take it for granted that it is true. The average attitude today is critical; naturally, in view of the tremendous rise in prices we have recently been through. Lower prices are expected, and taken for granted, where found. So, when a woman voluntarily tells us that our furniture values "beat the town," you may depend upon it being true.

Sixth Gallery, New Building.

THE SHOPS FOR MEN

On the street floor at Ninth Street. Entrance from Broadway or Fourth Avenue

Metropolitan Suits for Men

We emphasize the word "Metropolitan" because there are a lot of hyphenated suits at present domiciled within the city borders.

THESE are suits that are native, to the manor born. All you need to do is to pick your pattern, find your size, and you will find that all the other essentials have been attended to by us.

Last year such suits as these were $75 and $80. They are $50 now.

Hairline stripes. Herringbone effects in shades of gray and brown.

Subdued mixtures in unfinished worsteds, cassimeres, and chevots, affording a variety of choice in smooth and rough fabrics.

Models suitable for different physiques.

International Topcoats

The cloth came from over the ocean. The cutting and tailoring was done here.

Grays, browns, tans. Loose-draping model—quarter - lined with silk serge. Chesterfield model—full lined with silk serge. Herringbone. Plain weaves. Excellent topcoats. $60 each.

THE BURLINGTON ARCADE CLOTHING SHOP

THE CUSTOM SHOP
THE LONDON SHOP
THE SHIRT SHOP
THE SHOE SHOP
THE UNDERWEAR SHOP
THE HAT SHOP
THE UMBRELLA SHOP
THE SPORT SHOP
THE MOTOR SHOP

Burlington Arcade Floor, New Building

THE SHOPS FOR MEN

On the street floor at Ninth Street. Entrance from Broadway or Fourth Avenue

Metropolitan Suits for Men

We emphasize the word "Metropolitan" because there are a lot of hyphenated suits at present domiciled within the city borders.

THESE are suits that are native, to the manor born. All you need to do is to pick your pattern, find your size, and you will find that all the other essentials have been attended to by us.

Last year such suits as these were $75 and $80. They are $50 now.

Hairline stripes. Herringbone effects in shades of gray and brown.

Subdued mixtures in unfinished worsteds, cassimeres, and chevots, affording a variety of choice in smooth and rough fabrics.

Models suitable for different physiques.

International Topcoats

The cloth came from over the ocean. The cutting and tailoring was done here.

Grays, browns, tans. Loose-draping model—quarter - lined with silk serge. Chesterfield model—full lined with silk serge. Herringbone. Plain weaves. Excellent topcoats. $60 each.